Mutual Respect Starts With Culture

1

There are, indeed, cultural differences between Western ways and Ukrainian culture. But there doesn't need to be a power struggle between which culture is the best.

Having mutual respect for your culture and hers is what will make dating Ukrainian women enjoyable.

Showing interest in her culture could help you get to know her better. She is more than just a pretty face. And her body isn't the only treasure you will discover.

The first thing you need to understand about Ukrainian women is that their country is full of passed down traditions.

Friendly Faces

All throughout Ukraine, you can find friendly and sometimes loud people who love helping each other. They like large gatherings and groups and don't turn their nose up when they meet someone new.

Self-Confidence

Ukrainians are comfortable in their skin and their self-confidence will make you want to drop any self-doubt you were carrying before you met them.

Beautiful & Inviting

Yes, Ukrainian women are beautiful and eager to get to know you. It is a part of their custom to be friendly and inviting. So if you're on an online dating site for Ukrainian women, know that they don't have a problem expressing interest in you. Many men mistake their eagerness for a scam, but these women are just ready for love and someone to share life with. Isn't that what we all want? Someone to spend our lifetime with and experience the triumphs and upheavals that come along the way?

In Ukraine culture, it is customary to celebrate the ending of Winter and the coming of Spring by making pancakes. But not just for one day; for an entire week. This tradition is called Maslenitsa and is known as a sun festival.

Pancakes are chosen because they symbolize the Sun. This event is cheerful and Ukrainians serve freshly baked pancakes while they enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

What Can You Do?

If you want to show your Ukrainian woman that you understand and appreciate her culture, making her pancakes around the end of Winter would melt her heart.

If you aren't able to be with her physically, you can also do a video call and show her that you made pancakes for her! It will be a sweet gesture she won't soon forget. You could be the talk of her girl's night with this action!

How to Choose the Right Woman

Choosing the right woman for you is all about balance and realizing what you really need, not just what you want. Oftentimes, we get carried away with what we want in our partner. We may want them to have blonde hair and blue eyes or brown hair and green eyes.

Ninety percent of the focus in the dating world today, traditional and online, revolves around appearances. While it is important for you to be attracted to your special someone, it shouldn't be the only thing you look for. What are the other qualities that are equally if not more important than physical attractiveness?

Common Hobbies

When you are dating, you need to make sure you both have common hobbies. You don't have to do everything the same, but you need to have an overlap in interest. Find out what she likes to do and see if there are some commonalities that you share. Photography? Sports? Cooking? The possibilities are endless.

Complimentary Personality

As you are choosing the right woman for you, keep in mind that her personality has to compliment yours. If you know that you don't like to cook at all, be on the hunt for a Ukrainian woman that really enjoys being in the kitchen. If you tend to be a little shy and reserved, set your sights for a woman that's a bit more adventurous. It's all about balance.

Mutual Support

One of the most important parts of choosing the right partner involves support. You don't want to be with someone who doesn't help you achieve your life goals. You want to be with someone who is always supportive of your dreams and celebrates your accomplishments. In turn, you want to make sure you are that kind of partner in return.

Getting Over Translation Speedbumps

One of the biggest challenges you may face when dating a Ukrainian woman is the language barrier. Americans have euphemisms that she wouldn't understand and she has Ukrainian expressions that might make you scratch your head.

Luckily, we have a world with vast and extensive technology. You can learn any language you want and all the information is simply a click away. There are numerous and plentiful resources available to you to help you get over translation speedbumps. Let's discuss some of those resources that can enhance your Ukrainian dating experience.

Google Translate

Google Translate is probably the easiest and most effective way to crush language barriers quickly. During a chat, the last thing you want to be doing is flipping through a Ukrainian-to-English translation book.

Simply type out what you want to say, copy the Ukrainian translation and send to your sweetheart. This is the fastest way to keep the lines of communication open and flowing.

YouTube

When it comes to learning pronunciation of certain words and phrases, YouTube is a great and trusty friend. If you type in “how to say hello in Ukrainian,” it will give you a break down of what you need to know. More importantly, it will allow you hear what the word or phrase sounds like.

This is key because hearing what the word sounds like will help you understand the language better. If you continue to do this with each word you discover, you will come to know the language better over time.

Master Flirting with Ukrainian Women

4

There are a few key elements to flirting with Ukrainian women. Like most women, they are looking for a man who exudes confidence and will be assertive. Shy and timid guys don't float their boat.

Paying attention to her words and actions will make her feel like you really care about her. While most men will drool over how gorgeous she is, you will stand out if you notice more than her beautiful face.

Providing a sense of comfort and security goes a long way with Ukrainian women. They like it when their man protects them. Here are more tips:

Don't Criticize

Keep a gentle tone when expressing a different perspective

Appearance

A well-groomed man is attractive to Ukrainian women

Creative Compliments

She knows how beautiful she is so come up with something fresh

Eye Contact

Good eye contact means you are trustworthy

Laughter

A man who can see the humor in life is a turn-on

Conclusion
